Pastoral Comments

Janice has demonstrated exceptional qualities as a devout, faithful and generous member of the parish. Her ability to inspire, to witness to the power of Jesus Christ working in her life, and her faithfulness to our Catholic tradition are all very effective tools.

— Fr. Dave Gutmann

Janice did a great job at Saint Joseph the Worker. We had 101 women at our retreat; it was very real and moving.

— Fr. John Amsberry

Janice has been touched by Jesus and her explanation of what it means to follow Christ is experiential and lived. Her candid vulnerability is disarming and powerful. Her stories are chock-full of "real life" and will inspire you with hope.

— Fr. Cedric Pisegna, CP

Although I am not familiar with your work, my own research indicates that I would have no problem recommending you as a speaker. My sources were quite convincing that you are a positive and highly regarded speaker.
